

Critique Paper Third Quarter PT

Speech Title:

Grit: The Strongest Predictor of Success

Speaker:

Angela Duckworth

Summary of the Video:

Grit is passion and perseverance for very long term goals. It's not about having a talent or high IQ it's about staying loyal to your ultimate goal. Gritty people were significantly more likely to achieve their goals than those with talents. Most talented individuals do not follow through to their commitments. Grit is about making an effort to attain an ultimate goal.

Speech Content:

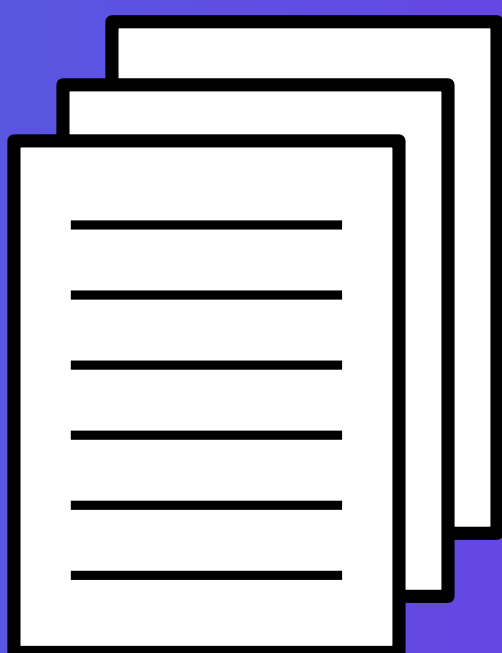

Introduction:

(How did the speech start?)

Introduction:

Angela Duckworth said that she was a 7 grade teacher. But she realize that her top honor students don't have enough IQ but they have talents to show that they smart and can make their grades higher without IQ but using talents. Angela want said to the people that IQ is not important in our society but if you have talents it can make you different to the others.

Body:

(What were the main points?)

Body:

The speaker's main point is that even though you're not born in a wealthy family nor have a high iq score you can still succeed in life. You dont have to be a prodigy nor born with perfect genes to achieve the great things in life, it all comes down to determination, passion and perseverance. The speaker is trying to give us the message that no matter what situation you are in there is always a path to success you just have to put in the time and effort. Hardwork beats talent everytime,

its not talent nor luck to be the best at
anything it's about the
drive and
determination you put
in.

Conclusion:

(How did the speech end?)

Conclusion:
In conclusion, As what
Angela Duckworth says,
“Effort matters than talent
”.Your talent will put into waste if it is not used or you don't exert any effort to improve or showcase what you have. Effort is important because even if you don't possess a talent
but you try your best to improve and equipped
yourself with
learnings
and experiences

you
will become better or
even more successful.
Success isn't achieved
solely via talent, but rather through constant effort. Grit is more important and will bring you further than talent.

Delivery Skills
and Techniques:

(What are the
best/worst
delivery skills and
techniques of the
speaker?)

The speaker's best
delivery skills and
techniques are the eye
contact, pacing, tone,
volume, body language,
appearance and
volume. Angela
Duckworth delivered
these skills and
techniques effectively.

Bias/Prejudice:

(Did the speaker show bias? Why? Why not?)

No, because the speaker is recounting her experiences with her seventh-grade students. She recognizes that many of her kids do not have a high IQ, but they have a talent for demonstrating to others that they are strong and intelligent. Equally, the speaker wants to emphasize that IQ is not the only factor that determines intelligence; talents and grit are also important, as evidenced by her students, who have a low IQ but demonstrate grit and talent. That is why the speaker does not appear to be biased.

Ted Talk Review:

(Would you recommend this video to fellow students? Explain.)

Yes, I would recommend this to a fellow student to watch this video. This video can encourage students to put out more effort in school and increase their motivation to succeed.
